

New Office Setup

Setting up a new office or expanding into a new location can be challenging and intimidating. Our team of network technicians help make your new office set-up and move seamless and easy with our New Office IT Set-up services. We help you plan and setup your new office IT infrastructure making the move seamless and easy with our new office setup services. Our new office setup services include: Hardware and Software advise and procurement, vendor evaluation and selection, office LAN/WLAN setup, Internet Access, Backup strategy, Server setup and configuration, Computer and laptop setup and configuration, printer setup, telephone, video conferencing setup and documentation.

The benefits of our New Office Setup include:

- One stop solution,
- Professional advise
- After sales support and documentation